SUB-DRIVE

TARGET: 12,000

Dear Suscribers:

This week each of you should have received a letter from us asking for your help on the person to person subscription drive, Target 12,000. We hope you've read the letter and have gotten as excited as we are about making this drive successful. As Catherine Cory said to you in her letter in the last Folio, we know you won't sell subscriptions to your friends because of the thank you gifts we're able to offer you. You'll do it because you like KPFK, and believe in what it stands for as a beacon of freedom in this increasingly controlled and alienated society.

Already just over a hundred of you have offered to be "key people" on a campus, or in a company, or for a town, or covering a telephone area. Each key person is trying to line up at least ten active helpers. If you will be one of those most active ones let us know right away by phoning the station at TR 7-5583 or by returning the post card enclosed with our letter to you.

To all the rest of you, won't you try to sell at least one subscription. KPFK's financial problems would be solved if you would.

Cordially,

Russ Orick
Jack Cook

Co-Chairmen

VOL. THREE, NO. 6

about public affairs

WHAT IS HAPPENING TO OPEN PLATFORM?

Nothing very unusual. During the past couple of months we have made several changes in Open Platform commentators. Some listeners have asked why, and we hope this will answer questions and clear up any misunderstandings.

On Open Platform we endeavor to allow as many points of view as possible within the political spectrum a chance to be heard.

It was originally intended to be . . . and still is . . . a revolving platform so that a wider diversity of views, even within the same party or persuasion, can be voiced.

In keeping with this policy we change our commentators from time to time to offer you new voices and opinions.

Recent changes have been Charles W. Ervin for Fred Warner Neal, Bene Turner of the Socialist Party for Theodore Edwards and Vanessa Brown will temporarily fill the time once allotted to Harold Fishman.

Future changes will, as always, be announced in the Folio.
